

THE ZONE

JOHN Kyriazis has joined Colliers International's industrial team on the Gold Coast.

He was previously with LJ Hooker Commercial and before that Infinite Commercial Consulting.

BRISBANE-based property company Sentinel Property Group has thrown its support behind the QUT Learning Potential Fund with a $30,000 contribution.

The fund supports QUT

Business School students who are studying courses with a strong commercial property focus.

Sentinel Property Group founder and managing director Warren Ebert said the fund aimed to reward aspiration and determination among those students facing financial difficulties and other adversity.

SHANNA Pepper-Baxter has joined Retail First's office on the Gold Coast as a leasing executive.

She was previously with Knight Frank's Gold Coast office.

ANTHONY Pilat has joined Colliers International's industrial team as a manager focusing on north Brisbane.

He brings significant experience in industrial agency, having held roles with Knight Frank and most recently his own firm Pilat Property.